Kayak - Eddyline Skylark

The Skylark fits into a new category of kayak considered transitional or cross over. While essentially a recreational kayak in size and fit, the Skylark has been endowed with much more consideration to the features and performance found in a full fledged sea kayak including hatches and bulkheads bow and stern for maximum flotation. This kayak is attractive to beginners and one that they can grow in, yet also provides a lightweight and fun alternative to the more experienced paddler. Rudder free design. Length: 12 feet; Beam: 26 inches; Weight: 41 pounds; stability: High.
